Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from James Monroe: In His Relations to the Public Service, During Half a Century, 1776 to 1826 It is obviously most desirable that this private collection should be bought by the government, and that the two groups should be combined, arranged, and illustrated with memoranda, for consultation if not for publication. They throw much light upon this first half century of our political progress. The papers controlled by Mrs. Gouverneur would greatly enhance the value of the more public documents now owned by the State Department. During the summer vacation in which the principal part of this work was prepared for the press I was under special obligations to the librarian of the Boston Athenaeum, C. A. Cutter, Esq., and to the librarian of the Free Public Library in Worcester. S. S. Green, Esq., for permission to make use of books in their charge; and at home I had like favors from the Maryland Historical Society, through the courtesy of J. W. M. Lee, Esq., the librarian, and Mr. John Gatchell, the assistant. The readiness with which the younger school of librarians endeavor to make their collections serviceable to students at a distance, as well as within the walls of the library, deserves most grateful recognition.
